Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurSequel to Taste Horizons Series: Book Three Six months after meeting at the Taste of Chicago, Lil Lampert and Grier Dilorio are living together. Their physical bond glows brighter than ever, but the couple soon realizes that it takes more than three magic words and outstanding sex to make a partnership work. Like any fledgling, Grier is learning how to navigate his new life. His problems should have ended when Jillian signed the papers acknowledging him as Lucas biological father and he got the opportunity to pursue a career in interior design. Instead, hes hampered by old fears and bad habits that are hard to let go. Adjusting to a small apartment in a four-season statewith a much younger man sporting a stubborn streak is a challenge for Lil. His position as Lucas Daddio is a delicate balancing act between doing what he thinks is right and deferring to Grier's eight years of experience. Life is stressed enough, but now Lil and Grier also face an unexpected complication from a powerful, far-reaching ruling body. Suddenly Lucas' safety and their happiness as an emerging family depends on Lil's keen understanding of human nature and Grier's willingness to learn.
