Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurFlorida is full of human predators, and they all give Dr Kay Scarpetta the opportunity and the means to do what she does best - persuading the dead to speak to her. And in Boston, Benton Wesley is working on a secret case involving convicted killers. It is a project which gives Scarpetta deep disquiet, as does the behaviour of her niece, Lucy, who is spending too much time in cheap bars looking for casual pick-ups. The Academy is called when a woman's body is found in Boston. She has been tortured, sexually abused, her body tattooed with handprints. The same sort of handprints Lucy had seen on the flesh of her latest pick-up. Meanwhile, Scarpetta and Marino are investigating the disappearance of a family in Florida, called in by a concerned neighbour, but as they search and find the tell-tale signs of abduction rather than disappearance, they also discover that someone had assumed the identity of the caller, and she is now dead.

They've been set up, and it becomes clear that someone is tracking their every move. Revue de presse Sensationally plotted, with a twist at the end that will leave you gasping for breath. The Daily Express (U.K.) A fine psychological thriller recalls the work of writers like Minette Walters or Thomas Harris. The Denver Post [Readers] will find themselves entertained and surprised by the ending. The Stuart News/Port St. Lucie News (Stuart, FL) There is a steely authority to the prose. The Independent (London) Cornwell and her original heroine Kay Scarpetta are both back in top form. Birmingham Post Presentation de l'diteur Florida is full of human predators, and they all give Dr Kay Scarpetta the opportunity and the means to do what she does best - persuading the dead to speak to her.
