Description :

Prsentation de l'diteurMartin David, an eager but inexperienced financial analyst, is the newest member of the investment team at Skeiron Capital Partners in London. His boss is an avowed financial genius, but hes also overbearing and intense. Despite his erratic behaviour, Martin cant help being drawn to him both professionally and personally.Too bad his boss doesnt seem to feel the same. In a firm where pedigree and connections mean far more than Martins newly-minted business degree, Martin feels desperately inadequateat least until he meets the enigmatic investment manager Alec Berger, who promises to help Martin establish himself in the financial community. Martin is so charmed by Alecs sophistication and wit that he gives him data that should have stayed confidential.Then the financial crisis hits. Banks burn, companies teeter on the brink, and Skeirons survival is at stake. Martin is pushed into the middle of the fight for Skeiron against both the tanking economy and a ruthless enemy who's stepped out of the shadows to collect the spoils. Return on Investment is the new gay financial thriller from EPIC Award winner and Lambda Award finalist Aleksandr Voinov.
