Biographie de l'auteur Violet Patterson was born in northwestern Ohio and spent her childhood forcing her younger brother and sister to put on plays she penned about Care Bears and Smurfs. From there, she moved on to children's stories - unfortunately works like "Adventures of Super Cookie" were never released to the masses. Ms. Patterson graduated from Miami University with a degree in psychology and minor in criminology. After several years in the professional world, she stopped brainstorming and started writing again. "Ryder on the Storm - Emerald Seer #1" is Ms. Patterson's debut novel. The sequel, "Light My Fire." was released as an ebook in December 2011 and the third installment, "End of the Night" is set for release in summer 2012. Violet Patterson resides with her family in Seattle, WA where her two children keep her active and entertained.
